

Call for Submissions to the Victoria University Review

Memorandum

To: Members of the Victoria University Community
From: Paul Hoyer, Chair of the Board of Regents and Chair of the Victoria University Review Committee
Date: April 2, 2014

The term of President Paul Gooch ends on June 30, 2015. In accordance with Section IV 2 (b) of By-law Number 1 of the Board of Regents, a Victoria University Review Committee has been established to conduct a broadly-based review of the University. Members of the Victoria University community are invited to contribute to the work of the Review Committee by responding to the following questions:

Character and Structure of Victoria University

1. What three characteristics of Victoria University are most important to you?
2. In your view, is the organizational structure of Victoria University effective and efficient?

Future Challenges and Priorities for Victoria University

3. What are the principal challenges that Victoria University will face in the next five to ten years?
4. What should the priorities of Victoria University be in the next five to ten years?

Role and Characteristics of the President of Victoria University

5. What do you understand the role of the President of Victoria University to be?
6. What do you think the role of the President of Victoria University should be in the next five to ten years?
7. What characteristics and strengths do you think the next President of Victoria University should have?

Additional comments are welcome.

Submissions may be submitted via email to c.oke@utoronto.ca or by mail to:

Victoria Review Committee
73 Queen's Park Crescent, NF 116
Toronto ON M5S 1K7

We would appreciate your submissions as soon as possible, and before May 1, 2014. Submissions will be treated as confidential to the Review Committee.

Thank you.